About This Handbook

Now is the time to start preparing for the International Student Convention. This Student Preparation Handbook has been compiled to make preparation easy and enjoyable. In it you will find helpful instructions, hints, and lots of guidance for all of the categories. Also included are advised target dates for completion, but you should set your own goals too! This is your handbook.

Why Use This Handbook

The purpose of this handbook isn't just to check off each day in anticipation of Student Convention. Investing time each day in worthy and purposeful activities bring satisfaction and achievement. The best benefits of Student Convention are found in what you do before Student Convention. This handbook will improve your character through purposeful training, practice, and selection of priorities.

How to Use This Handbook

Find the sections that apply to your chosen events. Don't be overwhelmed by the list of instructions. This handbook is meant to help you, but you should also heed advice from your supervisor and parents. Read all the steps and then decide what applies to your entry. Take note of the given target dates; but remember this is your personal handbook, and setting your own targets increases motivation and self-discipline. Also, work closely with the day-by-day calendar at the back. Most importantly, pray, pray, pray. Even if the instructions don't always say pray, still pray.

Enjoy preparing for Student Convention and glorify the Lord through your gifts these next few months. See you at Convention!

Choose Events

Ask your supervisor/parent for an Event List (CF13).

You are allowed to enter 12 events.

Read the criteria for events in Section I of the Student Convention Guidelines. This may influence your choice of events for Regional Convention. Also, the C.A.P. (Communications and Potential Leadership) event is not included in the 12 events. Read about the C.A.P. event in Section II of the Guidelines to find out which type of events must be entered for this category.

Now, make a list of the events you think you will enter. Have the list approved by your supervisor/parent and then start preparing. This is your own list, so you can change it if necessary. Try not to change it too much, but remain focused on the task ahead, and be determined to complete everything. Ask your supervisor/parent for the date by which you need to confirm your events and the deadline for any changes.

Event Code	Events
C.A.P. Event

Pray that God will help you actively follow Him as you prepare for this big event. Don't let deadlines, tasks, and circumstances make you lose sight of Who you are following. Remember it is God you are serving, and follow Him daily. "If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour." John 12:26

ACADEMICS Bible Memory	Advised Date	My Target
Pray and commit yourself and your family to this great task.  Pray regularly with your family.		J
Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read this section, the judging criteria, and Judge's Form from the Student Convention Guidelines .	Sept.
Prepare
Buy a small card file with 9 dividers. Label the dividers with the 9 categories of Bible memory. Handwrite the verses on 3" x 5" cards with the reference before and after each verse in your best handwriting. Say them to yourself constantly as you write each one. There are nearly 200. This will take a while.  Make sure you are using the King James Version.  Place the verses in the card file in the appropriate categories.  Constantly say the verses and references aloud.	Sept.–Oct.
Learning Pattern
Each day learn 2 verses. Say them to yourself aloud, and then to your parent.  On each Friday, say all 10 aloud, and then to your parent.  On the last Saturday of the month, say all 40 aloud to your parent.  Suggested learning order: Learn one verse from each category.  Then learn the second verse from each and continue to build all nine groups.	Oct.–May
After first 3 months
After three months, say all 120 verses by category.	Nov.
After second 3 months
Repeat the above learning pattern and say remaining verses by category.	Feb.
Drilling
After memorizing all verses, ask your parent to question you. For example, "Quote three verses from the Salvation category." "Is this verse correct?" "Which section is this verse from?" "Complete this verse." "This is the verse, give the reference." "This is the reference, quote the verse." Refer to the Guidelines again for the types of questions.	May

ACADEMICS Chess and Checkers	My Target
Step 1	J
Decide your "probable entry." Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read this section, the judging criteria, and Judge's Form from the Student Convention Guidelines .
Step 2
Practice during lunch and break times, especially when it's raining. Keep the balance—you do need physical exercise.  Try to practice with a skilled competitor.  Arrange a league table so that you maximize the competition in school/family.
Step 3
Aim to develop an overall strategy (think ahead).  Learn a few good opening moves.  Read a few books on the game once you have practiced standard openings. Play several games with just a few pieces to improve your end game. Read the Student Convention Guidelines to see who starts. What is the 50-move rule?

At the Convention

- Attend the earliest meeting arranged for your competition.
- Identify your first opponent and be on time for this match and any subsequent games.

ACADEMICS Spelling MyTarget Step 1 Pray and commit yourself and your family to this large task. Pray regularly with them and enjoy the fulfillment. You will need the Thorndike-Barnhart Advanced Dictionary. Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read this section, the judging criteria, and Judge's Form from the Student Convention Guidelines. Step 2 Divide the 1,600 words into groups of 200. Write each word, with its meaning and pronunciation from the dictionary, very neatly on a card, and file them alphabetically. Say each word and definition to yourself and picture them in your mind. Neat writing helps clear thinking. Each Month When reviewing, try to spell each word orally, and then write it. Each month learn 50 words a week (10 daily). • Each day ask your parent to check the 10. Each Friday ask your parent to check the 50. On the last Saturday of each month, ask your parent to check the 200. Regularity is the key—like eating—just steady amounts and steady exercise. My Target My Target Month 1 Month 5 Month 2 Month 6 Month 3 Month 7

Every 3 Months

Month 4

Take a week to review.

Ask your parent to quiz you on 50 selected words that you have learned so far. Ask your parent to say the word, read the definition, and then say the word again. Score yourself and review the results.

Last Month

Test regularly on 50 of the words every 2 or 3 days.

Month 8

Science Exhibits	Advised Date	My Target
Prepare
You may do an exhibit with one other student or by yourself. Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read the Science section, the judging criteria, and Judge's Form from the Student Convention Guidelines .
There are 4 types of entries. Decide which type of exhibit you will have. Check with your supervisor/parent.  Read the "On your accompanying paper" points in the Guidelines.  Read the "Hints" in the Guidelines, but remember that this is not just a library research event. You do need to do something.	Sept.
Read the Judge's Form for this event to see the criteria for judging your entry.
Check
Read the Checklist for Science. If electrical power is required, 120 AC will be available. Health and safety is always an issue. Only work when your Supervisor/parent is present with you in the science laboratory area.  Verify that it is legal for you to possess the items you want to collect (e.g., many birds' eggs are protected).	Sept.
Plan
Review the topic you have chosen, and make it specific and limited.
Write the overall aim. Carefully break this down into smaller steps and estimate how long each will take. Then, write down your overall plan of action.	Sept.
With your supervisor/parent, use a Progress Control Form to list the steps required to complete your work.	1

When planning your exhibit, consider the following:

Collection	Research	Engineering	Theoretical
Only materials collected since the last ISC can be entered. Only creation materials can be collected (not man-made).	Develop a hypothesis. Perform an experiment. Record results. Write your conclusion. Prepare display to show conclusion. This is not just a research project. You actually need to do something.	Use scientific principles to build equipment that performs a task. Include plans, diagrams, schemes, and a parts list so that your project can be repeated. Students must do it all. No commercial kits.	Display a discussion of a scientific principle, concept, technique, or theory using charts, graphics, diagrams, photos, audio-visual, or other aids.

ACADEMICS Science Exhibits Advised My Date Target Begin Work steadily through your plan. Do any of the items turn up an entirely new track that needs pursuing? Discuss these with your supervisor/parent. Keep your handbook and photo-record going. Keep checking those checklists. You may be using your PC as a database, but don't copy text from the Internet. This project and your discussion must be all Sept.-Mar. your own work and in your own words. Keep in view the main points of what you are collecting/researching/engineering/theorizing. Is your activity clearly in exactly one of the categories? Presentation Your exhibit must be a maximum of 4 ft. (121.9 cm) wide on a table or floor. Begin to decide how you will display your work. What will be the background colors? Are the main display items to be pictures, diagrams, or words? What will be the size and color of the fonts? What shape will be the text? Will it all be horizontal? Apr. How can you present the whole exhibit to focus the viewers' attention on the main point? Does the exhibit glorify God? Is there an overall attractive color balance? Review Get comments not only from your Supervisor/parent but also from other students. Do they find the exhibit interesting? Have you conveyed the main point you want to make, or does your equipment solve the main practical problem? May Are there enough words to say it clearly but not too many to

Paperwork complete

You need 3 Judge's Forms (Regional Convention only) and a 3" x 5" card attached to the back with your name, school's name, customer number, address, city, state/providence, and ZIP/Postal Code.

Also include your report stating the purpose, theme, or thesis for project, the conclusion of what has been proven or illustrated, documentation of research, and Scriptural application for your project.

Remember

Quality is more important than quantity. Do your very best.

PACE Bowl	Our Target
<ul> <li>PACE Bowl deals only with PACEs from 1072 to 1144.</li> <li>This is a unique public quiz event on PACEs.</li> <li>Four members are needed per team.</li> <li>Homeschools may also enter teams.</li> </ul>
Step 1
Establish your area of strength. Do your PACE numbers reflect your enthusiasms? Are you actually proficient in subjects you may not feel you like much? Get advice from your supervisor/parent.  Review PACEs done last year that are in the 1096+ area. Choose the areas of expertise for each of the four team members.
Step 2
Choose two teams, and ask your supervisor/parent to ask questions. Use your flags if you have no buzzer system.  Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read the PACE Bowl section, the judging criteria, and Judge's Form from the Student Convention Guidelines for your event.
Have toss-up questions (flags needed) and bonus questions (time limited). Have an audience. Continue to pray, and don't forget the deadline!
Step 3
Have as many practices as you can. Confirm the team members. Decide on each member's specialist subjects.  Keep aiming for 100 percents in your PACEs.  Make sure you have read the Guidelines and know what to expect at convention. Understand the scoring and all the rules, such as when to consult. Be well-dressed and smile during the event.

Bible Bowl	Our Target
• Bible Bowl is a private quiz event based on 11 Books of the Bible.
• Teams may consist of 3 to 5 players.
Homeschools may also enter.
• Each team will have 3 minutes to answer as many questions as possible.
• Each player will have 5 seconds to answer each question.
<ul> <li>All questions will be directed to individual team members, not answered as a group.</li> </ul>
Step 1
Learn which Books of the Bible will be used to develop the Bible Bowl questions. Each year's chosen Books are listed at www.aceministries.com. Read two or more Books a month.
Review the Student Convention Guidelines for rules and procedures.
Step 2
Choose team members. Have someone make sample questions from the 11 Books. Take turns asking questions and drilling your teammates. See how many questions you can answer in 3 minutes.
Continue to study the 11 chosen Books until Student Convention.

ACADEMICS Our Writing Events Target Step 1 Ask your Supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read the Writing section, the judging criteria, and Judge's Form from the Student Convention Guidelines for your event. Clarify subject. (Don't choose a title yet.) Step 2 Create an outline of the poem, story, or essay. Step 3 Using the outline, write the first draft, or use the PC. Read it; then revise it in the light of the Judge's Form and Convention Guidelines. The International Student Convention Office must receive your written entry by the early entry deadline. Find out when you need to hand in your entry to your supervisor/parent. Step 4 Using comments from your supervisor/parent, review and finalize your entry. Check and recheck for errors in spelling, grammar, capitalization, rhyme, and rhythm. Produce the final copy. Have a word or line count. Check the criteria and rules. Check to make sure you are going to have your entry ready to mail by the deadline. Choose a title. Step 5 You need 3 Judge's Forms and 3 Affidavit Forms. Have all the forms been completed? Make sure your forms clearly indicate your name, school's name, customer number, address, city, state/providence, and ZIP/Postal Code. Prepare your final entry for mailing. Include everything, and turn your work in to your supervisor/parent.

ACADEMICS
Computer Events (PowerPoint® and Web Design)	Advised Date	My Target
Prepare
Pray for wisdom in your planning and keep praying weekly. Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read this section, the judging criteria, and Judge's Form from the Student Convention Guidelines .
Read and reread them so that you become very familiar with the standards expected of this event.  Read carefully the Judge's Forms so that you are aware of what will be needed in your presentation.
Consider how much time you can realistically spend weekly on this event and commit to it.	Sept.–Nov.
Begin to study how to prepare websites and PowerPoint® presentations, and begin to practice on your own (or on an available) computer.
Believe that God will help you learn this method of communication.
Plan
Form an overall plan for your presentation, and begin to develop a theme you will follow.
If you are preparing a website, check on the Internet for layouts that appeal and work well.	Nov.–Jan.
Choose a suitable title for your presentation.	Feb.
Continue towards completion of your presentation.	Mar.–Apr.
Review
Are you happy with the result of your work?  Does your presentation honor God and His Creation?  Is your supervisor/parent happy with it?  Is the end result the best you can do?	May
Paperwork complete
You need 3 Judge's Forms, 3 Creative Composition Affidavit Forms, and 3 copies of a CD (for PowerPoint® only ). Be sure to include your name, school's name, customer number, address, city, state/providence, and ZIP/Postal Code.	May
When you have finished your PowerPoint® Presentation or Website	design, make s	ure

When you have finished your PowerPoint® Presentation or Website design, make sure that all the media files are in place and that all the hyperlinks work. Before submitting 3 copies of the PowerPoint® Presentation on CD, make sure that ALL the necessary files are copied. Test the CDs on another computer to see if everything is working and complete.

Soulwinning	Advised Date	My Target
Pray and commit yourself to being open to opportunities to share the Gospel.
Pray regularly with your family. Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read the Soulwinning section, the judging criteria, and Judge's Form from the Student Convention Guidelines .	Sept.
Prepare
Buy a scrapbook and keep a camera with you to take photos of those who pray for salvation. Keep a journal in this book with testimonies from the people who receive Christ as Saviour.	SeptOct.
Practice
Practice sharing your testimony and pertinent Scriptures with your family. Use several approaches to meet different situations.	SeptOct.
Witness
Keep your eyes and ears open to share the Gospel with others.  Pray daily that God will lead people who need to hear about Him across your path.  Take advantage of every opportunity.	Sept.–May
Final Preparations
Complete your scrapbook and the Affidavit Forms to be turned in at Convention.
Obtain the required signatures.  Pray and than God for the privilege of sharing His Word with others.	May

- Pray, and pray weekly.
- Divide each section (except Golden Harp) by 5; then do that daily.
- Say each block of (N÷5) verses daily with accumulation until Friday. Then try to say the whole week's assignment. Saturday can be a back-up day if you can't make it by Friday.
- Each chapter may have a maximum of 3 corrections/prompts in total.
- Golden Harp is different (3 times the volume but shorter Psalms and more repetition).

Scrapbooking	Advised Date	My Target
Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read the Scrapbooking section, the judging criteria, and Judge's Form from the Student Convention Guidelines .	Sept.
Choose topic
Decide on a theme, event, or character trait that fulfills the judging criteria well and will enhance your skill and techniques.	SeptOct.
Search for subject
Take your camera on field trips, holidays, vacations, or any other appropriate opportunity or choose quality photos you already have. Ask for advice on focus, arrangements, and other technical qualities.	Oct.–Jan.
Choose photographs
Collate a selection of possible photographs. Select which photos best meet the criteria on the Judge's Form and the type of layout you have selected.  Ask yourself the same questions the judges will ask (i.e., clear photos with sharp images, subjects are appropriately dressed according to A.C.E. Student Convention dress standards and guidelines).	Jan.–Feb.
Prepare
Make sure you have the correct binder and layout size before you begin your work.  Ask your supervisor/parent for advice on the correct material to use.  Check the library to see if there are books to aid you in your project.	Feb.–Mar.
Begin
Review the Hints from the Scrapbooking Judges as you decide on a color scheme. Paper color and design should complement photos. Photo arrangement should have a consistent layout with cropping, mats, and frames.  Use embellishments to enhance, not dominate, your theme.  Titles and journaling need to describe your composition and be easy to read.	Mar.–Apr
Presentation
Each page must be in a plastic page protector within a standard nondecorative binder. Remember to put the theme or event you have chosen in the title or journaling.	May

EXHIBITS
Needle and Thread (Garments/Needlecraft)	Advised Date	My Target
Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read the Needle and Thread section, the judging criteria, and Judge's Form from the Student Convention Guidelines . Also read the Hints from the Needle and Thread Judges.	Sept.
Choose project and pattern
For garments, ask yourself whether the pattern meets your body shape and size and your personal color palette. Will the garment be modest? Will the project please you when completed?	Sept.
Choose equipment and fabric
Is the fabric appropriate for the category chosen? Ask your supervisor/parent for advice on equipment and techniques. Do you have extra equipment available (needles, thread, etc.)? Consider going to the library or bookstore for needlecraft books to learn techniques and gain inspiration. Look for workshop days held at many craft stores.	Sept.–Oct.
Begin work
Use a Progress Control Form to list the tasks needed to complete the project. A lot of time and patience is usually required for this event, so don't wait too late to begin!	SeptNov.
Check work
Check to see that there is uniformity of stitches and that thread ends are secured. In Counted Cross-Stitch and Embroidery the back of all work must be accessible. Do not put glass in the frame!  Read the Judge's criteria again, and make sure you meet the guidelines.  Using the Judge's Forms, ask yourself the same questions the judges will ask (i.e., creativity, appropriate pattern, style, color, and uniformity of stitches).	Apr.–May
Paperwork complete
You need a copy of the pattern, 3 Judge's Forms (Regional Convention only), 1 Needle and Thread Report (CF49), a color photograph of garment being modeled, and a 3" x 5" card attached to the back with your name, school's name, customer number, address, city, state/providence, and ZIP/Postal Code.	May
Please put all this in a plastic bag.

ATHLETICS Track Events	Advised Date	My Target
Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read the Athletics section of the Student Convention Guidelines .	Sept.
Step 1
Begin gentle jogging for a small distance once a week. Each time, reduce number and duration of breathing stops.	Sept.
Step 2
Try a few small gentle jogs during the week with one long jog once a week. Begin timing and recording your progress in the chart provided on page 29.	Oct.
Step 3
Begin varying strides and breathing techniques. Introduce gradient running, as well as sandwich paces (i.e., fast, slow, fast). Eat meals after runs, not before. Have a healthy snack and drink prior to running. Remember to carry fluid on long runs. Occasionally, you might want to ask a friend to run or cycle alongside you.	Nov.
Step 4
Start training in your particular distance; however, still have one long jog a week. Begin taking notes of how weather conditions affect your run. Also take note of how different snacks prior to running affect your performance.	Dec.
Step 5
Find a surface similar to that used in your event, preferably a running track.  Continue to use the chart to beat your best time. Timing is a good motivator.	Feb.
Step 6
Decide on a comfortable pace and formulate your "running tactics" (i.e., when to accelerate).	Apr.–May
Step 7
Ask someone of similar physical ability to run "against" you. This will put your strategic running to the test and increase knowledge in overtaking and also "catching up."	May
Step 8
Ensure your athletic wear meets the Convention requirements. Check to see that your footwear is appropriate for running on track and that you are comfortable and used to running in them.	May

ATHLETICS
Field and Individual Elimination Events	Advised Date	My Target
Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read the Athletics section of the Student Convention Guidelines .	Sept.
Step 1

Have a healthy snack and drink prior to running. Remember to carry fluid on long runs. Occasionally, you might want to ask a friend to run or cycle alongside you.	Nov.
Step 4
Continue jogging once a week, but now practice your particular event regularly, keeping records in the chart. Build confidence and judgment before mastering details.  Begin taking notes of how weather conditions affect your run. Also take note of how different snacks prior to running affect your performance.	DecMay
Step 5
Ask different people of different styles to play against you and to help you do drills to improve weaknesses.	Apr.–May
Step 6
Ensure your athletic wear meets the Convention requirements. Also check that your footwear is in good condition and that any equipment is in good working order.	May

Tips for Event Day

Watch what you eat on the night before and morning of your event. To avoid injury, try not to do anything physical other than your events on the day of competition. Remember to arrive early and warm up at the start of the day's events and also immediately before your event. If it is hot on event day, sit in the shade and drink plenty of water.

ATHLETICS Team Sport Events	Advised Date	My Target
Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read the Athletics section of the Student Convention Guidelines .  Remember to pray that you will all work together as a team by encouraging, helping, and listening.	Sept.
Step 1
Each team member has the responsibility to keep fit. Try to do regular jogs. You may choose to follow the beginning phases for Field and Individual Events.	Sept.–May
Step 2
Work both as a team and individually on moves, passing, set-pieces, short sprints, and shooting (depending on the event).	Oct.
Step 3
Try to have regular matches either within the school or with another school/team.	Nov.–May
Step 4
Near the big day, try to find a different team to play. They might have different tactics, strengths, and weaknesses.	May
Step 5
Play in the same environment as the convention event. Ensure that uniforms are available and washed, with numbers on the back, and that they meet convention athletic dress requirements.	May

Date	Event/Step/Activity	Distance/Match	Time/Length/Score

COLOR GUARD/FLAG CORPS

Prepare	Advised Date	My Target
Pray for wisdom in your planning. Choose your commander and the students that will comprise the team.		C
As you put together your team, pray for unity of purpose and for a good sense of working together.
Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read this section from the Student Convention Guidelines .
Read the Judge's Form so that you become aware of what the judges will be looking for in your presentation.	Sept.–Oct.
Decide on uniforms and equipment you will need, and discuss how you will purchase them.
Plan
Develop your routine, giving close attention to space allowances. Contact A.C.E. for the year's music selection for Flag Corps.	NovDec.
Practice
Begin practicing the elements that will be incorporated into your routine.
Work on precision and unity.	Jan.–Apr.
Put elements together to form your routine.	_		_
Paperwork
The judges require a diagrammed plan for your routines in Flag Corps.  These must be turned in to the judges before you perform at convention. A Color Guard must follow the order of competition found on the Judge's Form.	Apr.

MUSIC	Advised Date	My Target
Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read the Music section and the Judge's Forms from the Student Convention Guidelines .	Sept.
Select piece
Pray about and choose a Scripture sentiment you want to express, and set about selecting a piece that projects this theme.
Listen to a wide variety of styles of music during this time. If you wish to create something or ask someone else to create it for you, you will need to allow up to a month longer for this to be completed.	Sept.–Nov.
Practice
With the complete score now available, set to work learning the notes and expression (at least 8 bars per week). The piece should adhere to the time duration specified in the Guidelines. At this rate, each ½ minute of performance should take about a week to learn. The complete work could be learned in 10 to 12 weeks.	Nov.–Jan.
Memorize
Commit the music to memory and pray about the interpretative qualities the Holy Spirit wants to express through you. Integrate these ideas in 8 bar sections and build up your interpretation of the sentiment.	Feb.–Mar.
Perform
Seek opportunities to minister through your piece at church events, homes for the aged, hospitals, and house groups, and allow God to use you.
Remember: this is not a performance, but a ministry that the Holy Spirit wants you to use.
Keep practicing and praying about your ministry until you are no longer concerned about yourself in front of others, but only concerned that the Holy Spirit will manifest Himself through you.  Play or sing with "the eyes of your heart" fixed on Him.	Apr.–May
Play or sing on at least 6 different occasions before going to convention with the piece.

MUSIC

Paperwork complete	Advised Date	My Target
Read the Music of the Student Convention Guidelines to find out what paperwork must be presented to the judges.
Now off to convention! Go with the assurance that you can and will minister the love of God to others.	May

Duets/Trios

If you are working in duos/trios/quartets, you will need to meet together weekly, when you have practiced your part, so that you can work constructively on the blend or balance of the accompaniment or of the other part(s).

Ensembles

These need to meet at least once every week after each member has had the chance to learn his section of the piece. As more students are required for ensembles, arrangements might take longer to be released, and students of varying abilities might take longer to learn their parts.

Remember all accompaniments must use piano, if recorded.

PLATFORM	Advised Date	My Target
Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read the Platform section and Judge's Forms from the Student Convention Guidelines .	Sept.
Step 1—Decision Making
Settle in your heart which platform events will suit you best. Reading the guidelines, prayerfully ask yourself:
Do I want to write a message of my own? If so, do I want to preach or give an oratory (like a speech)?  Do I want to do something dramatic? If so, do I want to prepare a dramatic monologue or dialogue, an illustrated storytelling, a clown act, a one-act-play, or a puppet drama?  Do I want to present something already written that will impact the audience? If so, do I want to give a poem or an expressive reading from a book or a famous speech?  Do I want to present my piece outside of a performance situation? If so, do I want to prepare a radio program or Scripture video?	Sept.
Step 2—Gathering Information
You have decided the category (or several) you want to do. Make your do finish what you begin. Every week is a step toward the finished produc		that you will
<ul> <li>Preaching         Pray about the topic, letting the Holy Spirit give you words and pictures. Let it be real to you from Him. Look up Scriptures in the Bible, run a word search, or do cross-references on your theme. You may want to use a key text as a springboard. Study it, meditate on it, apply it to your own life, and talk to others. Gather stories and testimonies on it.     </li> </ul>	Oct.–Dec.
<ul> <li>Oratory         Discuss your topic with others. Deepen your own understanding to mastery of it. Glean information from books or newspapers.         Think!     </li> </ul>	OctDec.
• The "Dramatic" events  Are you adapting something from a book or play? In this case, read it until it is alive and fresh and buzzing in you. Make it alive to you, as you are getting ready to live and give it.  For Dramatic Monologue: Start to personalize it and make it drama, not narrative.	OctDec.
For Illustrated Storytelling: Start to map out key points that will later need illustrating. Choose the type of illustration you will use.			_

•	The "Dramatic" events, continued	Advised Date	My Target
	For Clown Act: Pare down to basic points that will need to be emphasized by style or repetition. Start to create your character.
	For Puppets , Ventriloquism , or One-Act-Play: Decide characters and differentiate them. Map out beginning, middle, and end of the piece as well as where and what the main punch line is.	Oct.–Dec.
•	Expressive Reading, Poem, Famous Speech: Seek and you will find! Read lots of books or bits of books; ask others for ideas or for resources. Try reading pieces aloud until you find one that you will enjoy making your own. Time yourself reading it, and make sure it fits the time limits.	Oct.–Dec.
Sto	ep 3—Create Detail and Order
•	Preaching and Oratory:
	It is time to pare down your information. Create a step- by-step outline that is meaningful and flows from point to point. Clearly declare the message or purpose and appropriately balance the support material so as to accomplish the desired effect.	Jan.–Mar.
•	The "Dramatic" events:
	Script needs to be written or tailored now.
	For Dramatic Monologue/Dialogue: Full instructions for the physical staging and detailed feelings must be worked on and decided.
	For Illustrated Storytelling: Finish deciding the script, the illustrations, the character, and the timing.
	For Clown Act: Write or decide the complete script including style of the clown, props, and costume you will want. For Puppets: The script must be written in detail now with exits, entrances, changes of character, and puppet costume.
	Voice, music, scenery, and stage needs must be identified. For Ventriloquism: The script must be written in detail with a moral message and lively dialogue. Find a costume for your dummy that meets convention standards and matches your presentation.	Jan.–Mar.
	For One-Act-Play: The Full script must be written including exits, entrances, and instructions for timing or vocal style.
•	Expressive reading, Poem, and Famous Speech:
	Decide details of vocal changes and timing and use of space and gesture. Let the piece start to live, but don't overdo it. Let the words carry it, and only add in what comes from your heart.	Jan.–Mar.

Step 4—Become Fluent	Advised Date	My Target
All lines to be learned, moves developed and practiced, vocal variety developed and practiced, and character made alive to you. Become aware of the audience and reaching them. If appropriate, all illustrations, props, costume, make-up, and lighting need to be found, put in place, and practiced. Keep everything relevant. Don't add extras without good reason.	Apr.
Use your Judge's Forms for a checklist. Have I utilized what makes a good piece? Judges will be looking for this. Become relaxed in the piece. Get beyond needing a prompt to enjoying yourself. Discipline yourself to work on every aspect suggested. Look to gain full marks as far as you can.
Step 5—Connect with Audience
Pray to stir up the gift in you. With everything in place, practice to an audience. Ask others to be critical. Adapt, develop and improve. Minister now; be rid of self-consciousness and be "others conscious," giving a good gift and thinking of the audience's enjoyment of it.	May		-
Paperwork Complete Read the guidelines for this section to find out what paperwork must be presented to the judges.  Make a checklist of all you need to bring to convention and check it.	May
After Convention What did you see at convention that challenged or touched you that

What did you see at convention that challenged or touched you that you would like to expand to develop your skills and to share Jesus Christ to the glory of God?

Interpretation for the Deaf	Advised Date	My Target
Prepare
Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read about this event in the Student Convention Guidelines .  Pray for wisdom as you prepare. Take every opportunity to sign with those for whom sign language is their primary form of communication. Study your ASL dictionary, giving special attention to religious signs.	Sept.–Nov.
Plan
Choose/write the story that you will use for the storytelling portion of the competition.	Nov.
Practice
Memorize your story and practice telling it orally while signing. Check the time limit, and practice to be sure you can complete your story in the time allotted. Practice finger spelling the Books of the Bible to help in interpretation of the Scripture portion of the competition.	Dec.–May
Paperwork complete
You need 3 Judge's Forms and 3 copies of your story.	May

Radio Program	Advised Date	My Target
Prepare
Pray for wisdom in your planning. If you are going to work as a team, choose the students who will be writing the script and acting in the program.  As you put a team in place, pray to God for unity of purpose and for a good sense of working together.  Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read the Student Convention Guidelines .  Read and reread them so that you become very familiar with the standards expected of this event.  Read carefully the Judge's Forms so that you become aware of what they will be looking for in your presentation.  Consider how much time you can realistically spend weekly on this event and commit to it.  Decide how you are going to make the final recording of your program and how you will record and edit.	Sept.–Nov.
Plan
Form an overall plan for your program and begin to develop a theme you will follow.	Nov.–Jan.
Choose a suitable title for your presentation and begin to write the script.	Jan.
Develop Program
Rehearse the script and begin to gain confidence as you master the mood and intonations of speech. Record and edit your program to your satisfaction. Remember there is a limit to length; check the Judge's Forms to make sure you are within the guidelines.	Feb.–Apr.
Review
Produce the final result on a cassette tape or CD.  Are you happy with the result of your work?  Does your program honor God and His Creation?  Does the content match with your intended listening audience?  Is your supervisor/parent happy with it?  Is the end result the best you can do?	May
Paperwork complete
You need 3 Judge's Forms, 3 copies of the script, and 3 copies of the program on CD or cassette.	May

Before submitting 3 copies of the program, make sure that the balance is right and all sound effects have been recorded. Play the recording to test it for quality.

Scripture Video	Advised Date	My Target
Prepare
Pray for wisdom in your planning. If you are going to work as a team, choose the students who will be writing the script and acting in the program.  As you put a team in place, pray to God for unity of purpose and for a good sense of working together.  Ask your supervisor/parent for a copy of or permission to read about Scripture Video in the Student Convention Guidelines .  Read and reread them so that you become very familiar with the content and standards expected of this event.  SeptRead carefully the Judge's Forms so that you become aware of what they will be looking for in your Scripture video.  Consider how much time you can realistically spend weekly on this event and commit to it.  Decide what equipment you will use for filming and how you are going to edit the final program.
Plan
Check the A.C.E. website for the current year's Scripture passage. Form an overall plan for your program and begin to develop a theme you will follow.	Nov.–Jan.
Choose the scripture and begin to produce a storyboard and to write any additional narrative.	Jan.
Develop Video
Rehearse the reading of the Scripture passage (and narrative).  Check on pronunciations and speech intonation.  Film the sequences required.  Log your recordings so that you know where the sequences are that you will eventually use in your presentation.  Begin to edit your program using linear (video recorders) or nonlinear (computer-based) equipment.  Remember that the Guidelines allow you to obtain technical assistance from experts as long as you make all the decisions.  Also remember there is a limit to program length; check the Judge's Forms to make sure you are within the guidelines.	Feb.–Apr.

Scripture Video	Advised Date	My Target
Review		J
Produce the final result on a VHS or DVD.  Are you happy with the result of your work?  Does your program honor God and His Creation?  Does the content match with your intended viewing audience?  Is your Supervisor or are your parents happy with it?  Is the end result the best you can do?	May
Paperwork complete
You need 3 Judge's Forms, 3 VHS/DVD copies, and any additional paperwork.	May

Before producing your master tape (and submitting 3 copies of the program on VHS/DVD), make sure that the balance is right among narrative, music, and sound effects. Play the recorded video to check for quality.

GET READY TO GO!

Your performance events are polished, you're now fit, you've done all the memorizing and preparing, and you've completed all forms, and now it's the difficult part—deciding what to take!

Try to remember all the items you will require, especially those you need to complete your entries.

You might be aware that there is a dress code at ISC. Please ask your supervisor/parent what is permitted and what isn't. Have you ever wondered why we have a dress code? Basically, the Bible tells us about living Godly lifestyles and not conforming to this world. We believe that just as we should be different from the world in our conduct and character, we should also present ourselves holy towards God. We know it is the inside of a person that counts, but we should also ask ourselves if our outward appearance is honoring God. Therefore, at convention we try to promote Christian modesty. We realize that one person's idea of modesty may differ from another person's, but we have set a dress code that we feel everyone can maintain. Please respect the decision for the dress code. After all, we want your focus to be on the Lord and your events during the week, and don't forget, we want you to have fun!

"For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God." Colossians 3:3
